

Regulations - Donations page on Amal's new English website

General

1. A donation made to the Amal 1 Ltd. Network (hereinafter: "Amal") through the website is made in accordance with the terms listed below. The use of the website and any payment made through it are subject to the terms specified in these regulations, and the responsibility lies with those who use the website to have read the regulations and agreed to its terms.
2. It is important to accurately fill in the required details for the donation for the purpose of issuing a receipt.
3. Amal Network reserves the right to block or restrict the use of the website, in any case where it believes that the use of the website does not comply with the terms of the regulations, at its sole discretion.
4. The Amal Network may change and/or update the information on the website, including amounts or terms of the regulations, from time to time, at its sole discretion.
5. For the avoidance of all doubt, it is hereby clarified that the Amal network will not be held liable for any action performed on the site that was not approved by it.
6. These regulations are written in the masculine form for convenience only, but are intended for women and men alike.

Privacy

7. The user's personal details and the history of the payments made on the website will be stored in the collection system database, and in accordance with the provisions of the Privacy Protection Law, 5741-1981, they will be used only for the purpose for which they were intended.
8. It is hereby clarified that the Amal network does its best to protect the information provided to it, and takes the necessary security measures for this purpose. However, it is not possible for the Amal Network to guarantee that there will be no malfunctions in these measures, beyond its control, that may compromise the quality of the information protection. In such cases, the Amal Network shall not be liable for any damage of any kind, indirect or direct, caused to the user and/or anyone on his behalf if this information is lost or if unauthorized use is made of it.

Data Security

9. The details of the information provided by you during your use of the website are secure and payment is processed through the Tranzilla credit card processing company. Payment will be made in accordance with accepted information security standards, such as SSL encryption and in compliance with information security standard 3.2.1. PCI-DSS-Version.

How to make the donation on the website
